Once upon a time, a beautiful parrot lived in a cage. It was looked after well by its owner. It had good food to eat and its cage was kept clean and tidy, but it was not happy. This was because it was locked up in a cage.

One day , it's master said, "I am going into the forest. Do you want to send a message to the other birds there?" 'Tell them I miss them,' said the parrot sadly.

A few days later, the master came back and said, 'A strange thing happened. When I told the other birds about you, one of them lay down and died.

At this the parrot fell down and fainted. Thinking that it was dead, the master opened the door of the cage. The bird quickly got up, and flew out of the cage. As it flew out of the open window, it said, "My intelligent friend has given me a good idea. Goodbye. I am going away to the forest to spend my days with my friends."
